SESSION 1

21st Century 'progress' and 'singing your progress song'!

- What do we mean by appropriate progress?
- Building classroom cultures and ethos to support palpable progress
- Exploiting the untapped potential of your learning environments to first stimulate and then showcase pupil progress

SESSION 2

The Big 5 principles underpinning progress for all

- Planning for progress: Don't be a self-sabotaging teacher!
- The role of lesson objectives and success criteria in supporting progress
- Oracy and pupil voice: Getting more from what we do
- Activating learners as owners of their own learning and as resources for each other

SESSION 3

Minimally invasive marking© and best practice in feedback

- Explore how teachers can create amazingly dialogic feedback, and pupil responses, by not writing a word!
